About the Ferdinand Benedictine Sisters

The Sisters of St. Benedict have been at home in Indiana since their founding in Ferdinand in 1867. Just like their monastery home makes a distinctive impact on the Ferdinand skyline, so too has their presence made a distinctive impact on countless lives through their prayer and ministries. They live the over-1,500-year-old Benedictine Rule, a spiritual path for finding God in the everyday.

Initially, the sisters came from Europe to be educators. They continue to educate, but now also minister in parishes, church institutions, health care facilities, retreat centers, and social service agencies in Indiana, Kentucky, and Peru.

Dome Golf Classic!

2022 Dome Golf Classic

The Pfau Course

One of the premiere public golf courses in the Midwest, The Pfau Course at Indiana University opened in 2020, offering golfers a new must-see, must-experience destination course just minutes from the Indiana University campus.

Designed by highly-acclaimed architect Steve Smyers and two-time major winner Fuzzy Zoeller, the course offers a unique, world-class layout set in the natural beauty of southern Indiana. Smyers utilized the area's natural topography in designing the course, while also incorporating the combination of forest, open space and forest edges that result in both amazing views and a wonderful golfing test.

Where the money goes:

As a contributor to the Dome Golf Classic, you assist the sisters in their ministries, making a positive difference in:

- The lives of students being taught by our sisters.
- Outreach to the hungry, homeless, jobless, and illiterate served by our sisters.
- Comfort and care for people in crisis.
- Assisting immigrants on a legal path to citizenship.
- The spiritual enrichment of parishes served by the sisters and individuals seeking to grow in their faith.
- ...and so much more.

For this, we thank you!
